Summary of reasons for decision:

The image file explicitly depicts a naked girl performing a sexual act on herself. It is deemed objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes. The image can only be for the purpose of sexually arousing those with a prurient interest in young girls. It presents young girls as sexually active and aware, and as appropriate subjects for adult sexual fantasy and desire. It has the effect of encouraging and legitimising such an interest. As an image file it can be shared widely among like-minded individuals. The image may also be used for the purpose of grooming children for sexual exploitation. The Classification Office has considered the effects of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 on the application of the classification criteria. The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression, but this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications that promote and support the exploitation of children for sexual purposes be deemed objectionable.
